WRITTEN FOR THE NETFLIX SERIES, THAI CAVE RESCUE

MAKIE made her way to the Deep South from her family's horse farm in MN (by way of singing & dancing across the U.S.—from NYC to L.A.—and internationally). Growing up listening to her aunt sing back-up for Anne Murray, and watching her parents harmonize as wedding singers, music became her natural language. With a deep passion for storytelling, she transforms vulnerability into strength, pouring raw emotion into every note. A small-town, country girl at heart with a vintage soul, her sound blends Americana, Indie Folk & Country—drawing comparisons to Lucinda Williams, Jewel, Jenny Lewis, and Kacey Musgraves.

MAKIE's music has found its way into the soundtrack of various Film & TV projects, demonstrating her cinematic appeal. She is also a strong, versatile actress with credits Off-Broadway and in Film & TV. She recently debuted her song, "Good Old Fashioned Christmas" at the Chick-fil-A HQ Christmas devotional alongside CEO & founding family, Bubba & Cindy Cathy. Faith & family is central to MAKIE's life, reflected in her new vinyl album, Constellations, (dedicated to her late father, a true horseman & countryman). This new album will kick-off with a Valentine's Day duet, "Will You Love Me When", with Grammy-nominated, #1 charting artist, Shawn Mullins (known for hits like "Lullaby" & "Shimmer"). Six additional singles will roll out ahead of her full album vinyl release this fall.

Recorded at Real to Reel Studios, this project is produced by Brian Collins (CMA artist & singer-songwriter) and Will Turpin (Collective Soul) of Real People Music in Atlanta, GA. MAKIE is currently scheduling her 2027 tour for Constellations while playing local shows in the Atlanta area.
